

Evidence of Teaching Effectiveness

Rania Gihleb (Boston University)

Fall 2011 EC101 – 3 Sections, Overall Instructor Grade: 4.75, 4.25, 4.22

Selected Comments

- “She was very good at explaining topics and answering questions; passionate and enthusiastic; wants students to understand topics”
- “Knows her stuff and relevant examples”
- “Rania is great at explaining concepts using a lot of examples and drawing tables and graphs to illustrate how things work. If people have questions she will go back and explain”
- “She is great at explaining the material. Discussion section is very productive for me as it is awesome review what we learned in lecture. Examples in discussion are perfect-clear, but challenging and are great to refer book to. A++”
- “Knowledgeable and dedicated”
- “Good Ta, would recommend to other students”
- “She is really good at making the material more understandable. Very approachable”
- “Makes the class interesting and always prepared”
- “Very helpful and clear in teaching what otherwise seems very hard”
- “Explains well, I feel like I understand the topics and material better after explaining”
- “Stimulate interest and explain thoroughly. Organized”

Fall 2011 EC102 – 2 Sections, Overall Instructor Grade: 3.885,4.042

Selected Comments

- “Rania Gihleb was very helpful in explaining concepts and breaking down material in order for it to be more easy to understand”
- “Efficient with time. Very prompt and direct”
- “Instructor was always willing to take time with students to make sure they clearly understood the subject. She always encouraged students to ask any question and made them comfortable as possible when asking repetitive questions.”
- “She is great and very helpful and knowledgeable. Great TA!”
- “Promotes participation. Patient”
- “Knows her stuff and relevant examples”